What's New and Upcoming?

Call for Nominations: 2024 TEACH Awards: Recognizing Our Outstanding Educators!

Nominations Close: July 1st, 2024

Five unique awards have been created over the years to recognize the efforts of our educators and highlight their accomplishments. We encourage you to nominate exceptional faculty who embody the principles of excellence in teaching, who go above and beyond in their teaching role, and who will have a long-term impact on your career and that of others.

Please visit the TEACH website for more information on the award criteria and to nominate an extraordinary educator. Both peer and self-nominations are welcome for all TEACH Awards.

TEACH Webpage Revamp

The TEACH webpage is undergoing a transformation! Slated to launch in May, our new webpage will have a fresh, revamped appearance. In a collaborative effort with TEACH and our partners, the website redesign will provide an enhanced user experience. Hosted through Virginia Tech's content management system, Ensemble, the redesigned site will maintain the existing homepage link. While some links may change, rest assured that content will retain its invaluable resourcefulness!

Call for Editorial Board Members: BMC Medical Education

BMC Medical Education, a leading journal in medical education, has seen substantial growth in the past 2 years and are looking to expand their editorial board and welcome more members to review scholarly manuscripts. As an editorial board member/associate editor, you'll review manuscripts on topics of your choice. Tasks include initial manuscript review, finding reviewers, corresponding with authors, and making recommendations to the editorial team. This is a valuable opportunity for seasoned faculty to contribute to medical education literature, adding to CVs under service and scholarly activity.
